HISTORY OF BROWN'S HOTEL

Brown's Hotel has a fascinating history and has hosted many distinguished guests since it opened as London's first ever hotel in 1837. It is from here that

Rudyard Kipling penned many of his novels and it is believed that

The Drawing Room was the inspiration for Agatha Christie's 'At Bertram's Hotel.' To this day, this chic, five-star establishment welcomes guests "in-the-know."

Brown's Hotel personifies the refined sophistication of modern British luxury. Each room and suite is individually decorated and many feature antiques and contemporary artworks, creating an elegant and fashionable air.

The menus at Charlie's celebrate British culinary heritage with creative, contemporary flair, while embracing a bygone era of service; our award-winning Afternoon Tea is ideal for those seeking a quintessential English experience.

A luxurious spa and state-of-the-art gymnasium offer a discreet sanctuary within this vibrant city.

COCKTAILS

RED £23

In Italy, they say “diventare rosso come un peperone” Why are you blushing? Excitement, arousal, love, shame, fury? There are reds and there are reds. Salty at first, smoky mezcal clears to reveal vibrant red peppers then tequila laced with chilli liquor.

Comfort Zone £24

The garden is an eternal source of comfort; things always change but somehow they remain in perfect harmony. Seeds scatter, flowers take root. Everything is just as it should be. So it is here, with elderflower, celery and plum in perfect balance. After all, you reap what you sow.

Deep Blue £25

The human soul feels calmer when gazing at vast expanses of blue, far on the hazy horizon where the sea and sky connect. A drink with the depth of an ocean, a citrus zesty awakening. Not so much old fashioned as fashioned out of the eternal.
