

AUTUMN & WINTER
PROGRAMME

VILLA IGIEA
PALERMO

A ROCCO FORTE HOTEL

Autumn & Winter in Sicily: a Year-Round Destination

Drifting from autumnal sun to cosy winter, Villa Igea shimmers like a jewel on the edge of Palermo, the lively capital of the largest island in the Mediterranean.

Step inside and discover a world of seasonal inspiration through our colourful interiors and inventive dishes, served at Florio within an ornate Louis XVI dining hall. Relax in our serene gardens and watch the sun set from our Igea Terrazza Bar, with the sounds of our resident DJs or music performers. Enjoy on-site activities and discover the destination, with a collection of new experiences suitable for everyone. Explore Teatro Massimo's exciting cultural calendar, from bespoke tours and architectural insights to emotive operas, ballets and concerts.

For that extra festive sparkle, allow us to bring the creative magic to your Christmas holiday with memorable events and captivating musical performances.

Sunday Brunch at Florio by Fulvio Pierangelini

Gather friends and family for a feast of traditional Italian dishes, with live music and stunning views of the azure Tyrrhenian Sea on our sunny terrace.

Our friends at the Dudi Book Store will enchant and entertain children with exciting, interactive activities so the little ones will be well fed, both literally and imaginatively.

Every Sunday, from October 13th, from 1pm until 3pm

Groovy Friday at Igiea Terrazza Bar

From jazz pianists to alternative songwriters, Palermo's cobbled streets are home to a vibrant community of musical talent.

This winter, we've invited them to create the soundtrack to your Fridays, with live music under the elegant sandstone vaults of the Igiea Terrazza Bar. Sip on a selection of cocktails designed by Maestro Salvatore Calabrese and dance the night away under the stars as the Gulf of Palermo shimmers to the soulful voices of our resident performers.

Every Friday, from 7pm

Dj Nights at Igiea Terrazza Bar

Immerse yourself in captivating ambiance where live music takes center stage, and the rhythm of the night meets the art of crafting exquisite cocktails.

Join us for a sensational experience, where you can sip on crafted cocktails, unwind and let the live music elevate your night. A perfect blend of melodies and mixology awaits - see you every Thursday for a night of musical and cocktail magic!

Every Thursday, from 7pm

Meet the Cocktail Maestro Salvatore Calabrese

Discover all secrets of our The Island of Desire drink list by the Cocktail Maestro, Salvatore Calabrese.

If our historic bar counter could speak, what stories would it tell?
Tales of movie stars, of Belle Epoque glamour, of Villa Igiea's most glamorous patrons. The Maestro invites you to take a seat at the Igiea Terrazza Bar and select a cocktail. The next story will be yours to tell.

Sunday 1 December, in collaboration with Donovan Bar London

Afternoon Tea

Afternoon tea is always a treat but especially so on the terrace of Igica Terrazza Bar.

Admire the yachts floating in the azure blue waters of the sea, glimpsed through cypress trees. Take your time choosing from our selection of tea and coffee, as you anticipate the arrival of delicate finger sandwiches. Leave room for homemade cakes and warm scones served with clotted cream and homemade preserves.

Discover Bagheria

A private excursion to two cultural gems in historic Bagheria, accompanied by a specialist guide and visual artist Francesco Domilici, whose internationally acclaimed work is exhibited at both venues.

Begin in Villa Palagonia's gardens, overlooked by the thrillingly grotesque statues that earned it the nickname Villa of Monsters. Inside, a monumental staircase is the centrepiece of the fresco-filled lobby. Enter the uncanny Hall of Mirrors before touring an entire floor usually closed to the public.

Nearby Villa Cattolica, an eighteenth century palazzo, is home to the Guttuso Museum, one of Southern Italy's most important museums housing the largest collection of works by Renato Guttuso. View the Bagherian-born artist's realist paintings and his only sculpture, alongside pieces by contemporaries such as Giuseppe Tornatore and Ferdinando Scianna.

Opera dei Pupi: the last of the Puppeteers

We've pulled some strings and set the stage for a magical day of storytelling with Palermo's most wonderful tradition, the Puppet Opera, which has been declared a UNESCO masterpiece of vocal and intangible heritage.

Master puppeteer Salvatore Bumbello will teach you and your children how to produce puppet props, operate the strings and create unusual sounds from the show on the barrel organ. Following a cultural extravaganza, put on your detective cap and embark on a treasure hunt. After a successful afternoon solving riddles, unfurl your picnic blanket under an ancient Ficus in the centre of Piazza Marina. For those with a sweet tooth, complete your meal with a delicious pastry or dessert from a local sweet shop and enjoy a stroll through the peaceful grounds of the Garibaldi Garden.
